

EDITORIAL INTERN

GUP Magazine is looking for an editorial intern to strengthen its team.

Responsibilities

Provide editorial support for GUP Magazine online and print version:

- Writing of copy about photography and photographers
- Research
- Keeping GUP's and affiliated social networking sites up-to-date
- Contributing ideas
- Support for office management
- Support in organising and promoting events
- Opportunities for creative work like writing blogs and articles, photo book reviews, conducting interviews with photo professionals

Summary: the successful candidate will be involved in all aspects of running a magazine with an extensive online platform.

Skills

- Flawless in English (writing and speaking)
- Love of writing and an interest in journalism
- Affinity with (art) photography
- Creative
- Communication aptitude
- Pro-active attitude
- Independent worker
- Affinity with contemporary magazines

Opportunities

- Develop contemporary editorial skills
- Obtain practical editorial experience
- Produce articles and interviews independently
- Learn how to efficiently prepare for and adapt to current events
- Enrich CV
- Learn how to manage and work deadlines
- Maintain relationships with external contacts

Period

A minimum of five months
32 hours per week

Location

Amsterdam city centre

Application

Send a CV and short letter of motivation (in English) to:
Katherine Oktober Matthews | katherine@gupmagazine.com